

Roswell Arts Fund Gifts Sculptures To City

As the 2018-2019 ArtAround Roswell Sculpture Tour closes, the nonprofit is donating four sculptures to the city.

By News Desk | Feb 21, 2019 5:01 pm ET | Updated Feb 21, 2019 5:02 pm ET

From The City of Roswell: As the 2018-2019 ArtAround Roswell Sculpture Tour is coming to a close, and Roswell Arts Fund is thrilled to gift four sculptures to the City of Roswell!

Granite Ring by Chris Rothermel located on the City Hall campus by the bridge to the Cultural Arts Center . Purchased by Roswell Arts Fund and The Hagan Family Foundation as a lasting tribute to Robert Farley and his immeasurable contributions to the arts in our city.

The Uniting of Work and Spirit by Robert Clements located at Mill Park. Purchased by Randall-Paulson Architects, as a gift the to the city in honor of the 25th anniversary of their business.

Subscribe

Ask the Fish 2.0 by Stephen Fairchild, located at Don White Park, under 400 bridge. Purchased by Roswell Arts Fund and a donation from Carl Black Buick, GMC Roswell.

Horse Apple by James Hetherington, located at Leita Thompson Park. Purchased by Roswell Arts Fund and a donation from the artist .

Image via The City of Roswell

See article on Patch >

More from Roswell, GA Patch

Ga. 400 Express Lanes Video By GDOT Previews Traffic Flow

WellStar North Fulton Hospital Opens Cardiac Catheterization Lab

This Garbage Can Is The Rolls-Royce Of Trash Bins