

Ribbon-cutting to open 'ArtAround Roswell'

News | April 12, 2019

By David Ibata, For the AJC

A ribbon-cutting ceremony behind Roswell City Hall will formally unveil a new sculpture on loan to the city and open the 2019-20 edition of the ArtAround Roswell Sculpture Tour.

by giveaways and activities at the Arts Fund table in the East Alley for ArtAround Roswell, the every-third-Thursday, April-to-October community festival that also begins that evening.

Nine temporary sculptures are on display around town in this year's ArtAround show. They join 10 permanent artworks purchased from previous years' tours. All of the temporary sculptures are available for purchase.

By Atlanta Ballet

Advertiser Content

Atlanta Ballet closes its season with rising star...

Now in its fourth year, ArtAround Roswell is an initiative of the Roswell Arts Fund in partnership with the city of Roswell. The outdoor exhibition runs from April to March, featuring temporary sculptures on loan from participating artists. Information: <https://bit.ly/2UtqbEp>

---

A subscription to The Atlanta Journal-Constitution plays an important role in funding the journalism you count on to keep you informed. Start now.